THE DETAILS

A Taste of Nostalgia

This heart-tugger ‘Beach-Triangler’ effortlessly merges practicality with a hint of Toronto nostalgia. You’ll know it when you feel it! Its understated façade belies a picture-perfect East-Enders that transcends the usual paradigms of townhouse living. Beyond the vibrant blue door, this town unfolds like a beautiful storyline, with its layout revealing itself piece by piece, where every corner feels intentional. A first glance inside reveals the newly renovated two-tone kitchen of deep navy & white, which delivers crisp contrast with geometric backsplash tiles adding subtle texture, catching light at different angles for a gallery-worthy finish. Layered sightlines and light-filled transitions connect the kitchen and open concept dining & living spaces, whilst large windows flood each level with a sunny disposition, upping Edgewood’s fresh, airy, and welcoming impression. Head up to three generously sized bedrooms on private floors, styled with natural textures, moody accent walls, and soft neutrals, providing a sense of privacy and individual space. The lower level offers a bonus recreation room that is begging for a large-screen TV, a video game console, and an oversized, comfy sectional. And one can’t resist the private outdoor terrace, which offers a lush, green retreat, perfect for morning coffees or an evening BBQ surrounded by a canopy of mature trees. This freshly painted residence reveals a collection of thoughtful details: hardwood floors underfoot, lovely renovated washrooms, a full-sized laundry room with extra storage and a desirable underground garage. So effortless, it’s borderline unfair, but hey, you earned it.

Tucked into this coveted pocket, Edgewood Green is a boutique community of just 37 residences. Young families gather in the courtyard, long-term and retired neighbours bring stability, and professionals add a vibrant edge. The community vibe runs deep, think monthly book clubs, an annual September BBQ, and neighbours who genuinely look out for one another - safe, secure and a taste of that old-school magic! From here, you’re steps lead to the best of the East: Fairmont & Woodbine Park, Ashbridge’s Bay, and the cultural richness of The Beaches & Queen Street E, plus easy access to major TTC rail & bus routes, bike lanes & daily errands on foot, including your local butcher & CSA farm-to-table delivery service!

WOODBINE CORRIDOR

Welcome to The Beach Triangle:

Tucked in on Toronto's East scenic shores of Lake Ontario, The Beach Triangle is one of Toronto's most beloved areas. It offers a unique blend of independent spirit and natural beauty. Known for its laid-back vibe and vibrant community, the neighbourhood provides an idyllic setting for residents and visitors, making it a top destination for those seeking a balance between city life and nature.

The area boasts a variety of restaurants and coffee shops that cater to all tastes. Whether you're craving a laid-back brunch or fine dining, the neighbourhood doesn't disappoint. Queen Street East, the main artery of The Beaches, is lined with eateries that range from cozy diners to upscale restaurants. Highlights include Tiffisy Restaurant, a local favourite known for its authentic Georgian cuisine and family-friendly vibe, and Casa di Giorgio, offering authentic Italian cuisine with a warm ambiance or Lake Inez for incredible food and its famous margaritas.. If you're in the mood for more casual options, Maha's Brunch and the Gull & Firkin provide excellent options.

For coffee lovers, spots like Black Pony, ESPRO Coffee Bar & Buy's Coffee offer the perfect pick-me-up, whether you're looking for a quick espresso or a leisurely afternoon sipping a latte with a lake view.

One of the most appealing aspects of the Beaches Triangle is its high walkability score. Stroll down Queen Street East to enjoy boutique shopping or detour through tree-lined residential streets where heritage homes sit proudly amidst newer developments. The neighbourhood is pedestrian and cycling-friendly, filled with local charm at every turn.

Beyond its walkability, the Beach Triangle is celebrated for its abundance of green space. Fairmount Park stands out with its playground, wading pool, sports field, tennis courts, ball diamonds, and winter rink, making it a year-round destination. In the summer months, it often transforms into a lively hub for community events, from outdoor concerts to art shows. For a quieter escape, Woodbine Park to the west and the Glen Stewart Ravine to the north provide peaceful settings for hiking, picnicking, or simply enjoying the calm of nature.

But perhaps the neighbourhood's crown jewel is its direct access to Lake Ontario. The four beaches, Woodbine Beach, Kew-Balmy Beach, Scarboro Beach, and Silver Birch Beach, are perfect for sunbathing, swimming, or even a casual walk along the sandy shores. The boardwalk along the shoreline is bustling in warmer months, with runners, dog walkers, and cyclists taking in the fresh lake breeze. The nearby Martin Goodman Trail provides a scenic cycling route, connecting Edgewood to the rest of the waterfront trail system.

Despite its community atmosphere, the Beach Triangle offers excellent transit options for commuting into the city's heart. The 501 Queen Streetcar runs through the neighbourhood, providing a direct route to downtown. Several bus routes also serve the area, making it convenient for those who work outside the neighbourhood. Additionally, Union Station and subway access are just a short streetcar ride away, allowing easy access to other parts of Toronto and beyond.

Within this coveted pocket, Edgewood Green sits, a boutique complex of just 37 units. The demographic mix creates a dynamic and well-balanced community, with approximately one-third consisting of young families with children under 10, who can often be seen playing safely in the central courtyard. Another third are long-term or retired residents with an active community presence, while the remainder bring a mix of young professionals!

Ralph Fox

FOUNDER, BROKER OF RECORD

Native Torontonians Ralph Fox recognized from an early age that the most successful people in life apply long-term thinking to their investments, relationships, and life goals. It's this philosophy, along with his lifelong entrepreneurial drive and exceptional business instincts, that have helped to establish Ralph as a top broker in the real estate market in downtown Toronto.

From the age of 12, Ralph set his sights on running his own business, and by 14, he'd already started two successful enterprises. After achieving a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Western Ontario, Ralph launched an importing and manufacturing company from the trunk of his car. In his twenties, Ralph continued to hone his negotiating skills by brokering business deals with partners in China, Hong Kong, India and Thailand, while at the same time managing sales agencies in major cities across the U.S. and Canada. Within a few short years, he grew his company into a full-scale operation with sales distribution networks that spanned North America and over time he was able to parlay his business acumen into his other big passion – Toronto's real estate market.

Ralph is a firm believer in the long-term potential of the Toronto real estate market. Ralph is the broker of record and founder of Fox Marin Associates – a boutique, full-service Toronto real estate brokerage with close to a half Billion in sales volume under its belt. Ralph puts his decades of success in Toronto's incredibly competitive marketplace to work, hammering out smart solutions that meet each client's unique personal and financial objectives. He also practices what he preaches, having built a significant and growing residential investment portfolio of his own. Ralph has partnered with some of the largest developers in Canada and has contributed his unique perspective on real estate trends to a wide range of media outlets, including The Globe and Mail, The Huffington Post, Canadian Real Estate Wealth magazine, Global TV News, CTV, Metro News, The Toronto Star, and the New Condo Guide magazine.

Ralph has a keen interest in understanding how to maximize human potential and longevity. As an avid reader, some of his greatest business influences are Warren Buffett, Elon Musk and Richard Branson. Ralph is also a personal performance and leadership coach, certified by the Institute for Professional Excellence in Coaching (IPEC). Ralph holds a Master's Certification in Negotiation from Harvard University and has been asked to judge the University of Toronto-Rotman School of Management's Marketing Case Study Finals.

A true Renaissance man, Ralph enjoys the thrill of fast-paced business negotiations just as much as consulting with clients on trends in architecture and design. His "work-hard-play-hard" mentality means that in his rare off-hours, you're just as apt to catch him lacing up his hockey skates, hitting a new personal record at the gym, enjoying a fine Ripasso in a local Italian restaurant, or wandering Toronto's Annex neighbourhood with brokerage partner Kori Marin and their loveable Rhodesian ridgeback, Draper.

Kori Marin

FOUNDER, BROKER

For high-energy real estate aficionado Kori Marin, a well-lived life is achieved by maintaining an "all-in" attitude that realizes every last ounce of one's full potential. This mindset has driven successful results in every aspect of her life – from her corporate sales and account management experience to her international travels, to her years of fitness training and leadership – and is the hallmark of the exceptional work that she does on behalf of her clients in the residential real estate sector in downtown Toronto.

Kori first exhibited this "all-in" approach when, at the age of eleven, she left home to train as a classical dancer. Later, while studying at Dalhousie University, she determined that the best application of her discipline and personal drive lay in business, where she could continue to test her abilities in new and exciting ways. This led to a seven-year stint in corporate sales, where she managed a $70+ million portfolio of accounts, including a who's who of North American retail giants like Walgreens, Target, CVS and Shoppers Drug Mart. Kori was praised for her analytical mindset and incomparable organizational skills – traits that have also served her well as she's built her own real estate investment portfolio, and would allow her to transition effortlessly into real estate as a full-time career.

Determined as ever, from the moment Kori focused her attention on the real estate industry, people took notice: in her first year, she won Rookie of the Year and President's Sales awards from Royal LePage Real Estate Services, J&D Division – one of the largest and most established brokerages in Toronto. In time, it became apparent that the big luxury brands that often take a "one-size-fits-all" approach to real estate were becoming more and more antiquated, and failed to serve the best interests or the specific needs of Kori's creative, forward-thinking and design-savvy clientele. Because of this, Kori and her partner Ralph made the decision to combine their diverse expertise and complementary skill sets, to revitalize the residential real estate experience for Toronto home buyers, sellers, and investors. And so, Fox Marin Associates was born.

Now among the Top 1% of Toronto Realtors, Kori continues to bring her own brand of charismatic energy, creative integrity, and expertise to her multifaceted work-life: not only is she a managing partner in the unstoppable force that is Fox Marin Associates – a consistently five star-rated brokerage with close to a quarter billion in real estate sales volume in its first three years. She's also an attentive and relatable manager of a growing team of both seasoned and up-and-coming real estate powerhouses in central and downtown Toronto.

When she's not marketing properties for sale, consulting with clients, gaining certifications in Negotiation Mastery from Harvard University, Digital Marketing from Brain Station or taking a turn judging Rotman's Business School Marketing Case Studies, Kori channels her boundless energy into fitness training or hiking with brokerage partner Ralph Fox and their #1 Ridgeless Rhodesian ridgeback, Draper. She also travels widely and has logged many kilometres of exploration around the world. Her favourite journeys to date? Trekking the Annapurna Circuit in Nepal, going on safari in South Africa's Kruger National Park, and visiting the Elephant Nature Park in Chiang Mai, Thailand.
